Dancing Wheels Company & School presents "Ladies of the '80's"

Playhouse Square's Mimi Ohio Theatre in Cleveland, OH

Celebrate 45 years of innovation at The Dancing Wheels Company & School's Gala Benefit Performance, an unforgettable evening of dance and music. The program features choreography by renowned artist Dianne McIntyre, alongside works by Annette Ellis and Angelina DiFranco. Set to iconic songs by female artists of the 1980s, the performance captures the bold energy and spirit of the era. Audiences will experience the artistry of the Dancing Wheels Company, joined by performers from the School of Dancing Wheels, in a powerful tribute to legacy and creativity.

Schedule of Events:

VIP Pre-Party | 6:30 PM

Step into an '80s-inspired club atmosphere at BIN 216, where guests will enjoy specialty cocktails and a bountiful selection of hors d'oeuvres. Browse a unique silent auction and enjoy engaging activities in the iconic Playhouse Square lobby.

Premiere Performance | 8:00 PM

VIP guests will be escorted to their Dress Circle seating for the world premiere of Ladies of the '80s!, featuring amazing choreography to the iconic sounds of women from the '80s.

Champagne Dessert Reception

Following the performance, celebrate with artists and fellow supporters at a festive post-show reception.

The Remember Balloons Live!

The Remember Balloons Live, created by Dominic Moore-Dunson, takes place June 20, 2026 at 6:30 PM at E.J. Thomas Hall. This 90-minute, family-friendly performance blends live music, dance, and storytelling to explore memory, love, and Alzheimer's, offering a joyful and moving experience for audiences of all ages.

<https://therememberballoonslive.com/> info@rememberballoonslive.com

The Remember Balloons Live, created by Dominic Moore-Dunson, will take place on June 20, 2026 at 6:30 PM at E.J. Thomas Hall in Akron, Ohio. This 90-minute, family-friendly performance brings the pages of the beloved children's book to life through a dynamic blend of contemporary dance, live music, and immersive storytelling. Designed for audiences of all ages, the work explores themes of memory, love, and loss, offering a gentle and accessible entry point into conversations around Alzheimer's and intergenerational connection.

The performance features a cast of dancers and musicians who guide audiences through a visually rich and emotionally resonant journey, using movement, sound, and projected media to represent how memories are formed, shared, and sometimes lost. With moments of joy, humor, and reflection, the show creates space for families to engage with one another before, during, and after the performance.

In addition to the performance itself, the event is designed as a broader experience, often including interactive elements that invite audiences to reflect on their own family stories.

"The Remember Balloons Live" is part of a larger community-centered initiative that includes storytelling workshops, educational programming for young people, and opportunities for families to preserve their own histories.

Whether attending as a family, educator, or community member, audiences can expect a heartfelt and imaginative experience that celebrates the power of memory and storytelling to bring people closer together.

Dunham Teacher Certification Workshop Held at Ohio State Department of Dance, 1813 N. High St. Columbus OH

In-Person: July 12 – 18

The Dunham Teacher Certification Workshop is designed for dance teachers/educators who wish to become certified Dunham Technique teachers. The curriculum covers technique, pedagogy, history and theory. This artist/scholar program is an exciting and rigorous process. Dancers engage in a yearly hybrid process which includes 5 months of online classes and a week-long in-person workshop in the summer, followed by our one week Dunham Technique Intensive. For those on the certification path, the Intensive is a crucial opportunity toward embodiment of the technique. For this reason, we encourage those attending the Certification Workshop to also attend the Intensive. The program usually requires 3 to 4 years to complete all course work and an additional 1-2 years to fully develop the culminating portfolio and the teaching practicum.

Congratulations to those of you who are part of this year's cohorts!

For more information on how to embark on this lifelong adventure, check out our website.

Dunham Foundations

Held at Ohio State Department of Dance, 1813 N. High St. Columbus OH

In-Person: July 13 - July 18

This year, for the second time, we will offer a new program called Dunham Foundations, to be held the week prior to the Intensive, July 13-18, 2026. This programming is intended for dancers who are interested in certification, including those who are applying for 2027 and those who wish to apply in the future. Places are limited, so early registration is advised.

This week of Dunham Technique classes, along with a few folkloric classes and some lectures, will help those applying for certification ready themselves for the Intensive and the audition. We recognize that it is hard to find Dunham training and we offer Dunham Foundations to address this. Dunham Foundations is optional but highly recommended for applicants.

In this book, former members of the Merce Cunningham Dance Company detail the technique classes, rehearsal procedures, and compositional approaches that defined Cunningham's New York studio, inspiring today's dancers and choreographers with Cunningham's creative process.

Revealing Merce Cunningham's creative processes as inspiration for today's dancers and choreographers

In this book, former members of the Merce Cunningham Dance Company detail the technique classes, rehearsal procedures, and compositional approaches that defined Cunningham's New York studio for more than sixty years. Through firsthand accounts supported by interviews and secondary sources, the authors reveal Cunningham's creative process—how simple movement phrases introduced in class evolved into the intricate and striking dances that became his signature.

The Artistry of Merce Cunningham also offers creative prompts inspired by themes and motifs from Cunningham's repertory, designed to spark ideas for choreographers and performance artists. It highlights how steady daily practice, curiosity, and experimentation can transform raw movement into complex works of art. By documenting Cunningham's methods, Daniel Roberts and Karen Eliot provide inspiration for today's dancers and choreographers as they navigate the materials, technologies, and artistic challenges of the twenty-first century.
